Dear colleagues and partners!

As of today, 05/20/2022, we will publish news, articles by Confidence Group specialists, event announcements and reports only on our new website in the News Agency section.

The previous version of our site remains available as a working tool for regular customers and consultants. You can also register in the Client area of the site and use The World of Confidence automated processor.

We are very proud of our well-designed migration document management system, which is available only in Confidence Group. This system, created in C# more than 15 years ago by our individual order, continues to work today.
