

Italy returns pre-pandemic entry rules

Italy from June 1, 2022 canceled sanitary protocols when entering the country for all, including Russian tourists

From June 1, Italy lifted all coronavirus restrictions for travelers entering the country. This was reported by the Association of Tour Operators of Russia (ATOR) with reference to the message of the Italian Ministry of Health.

According to the announcement of the Ministry of Health, the regulation providing for the operation of the GreenPass ("Green Certificate") for entry into Italy, which expires on May 31, has not been extended.

To travel to Italy, Russian citizens will only need a passport and a Schengen visa. Visa Application Centers accept documents as usual.
