

Kyrgyzstan lifted covid restrictions as of May 1, 2022

The Embassy of Kyrgyzstan informed about lifting the restrictions of entry into the country imposed due to the COVID-19 pandemic from May 1, 2022.

This eliminates the requirement to have a vaccination certificate and a negative PCR test for COVID-19 while entering the country.

Please be informed that citizens of the Russian Federation do not need a visa to enter Kyrgyzstan, it is also not necessary to have an international passport, you can enter with an internal passport. The possible period of stay in Kyrgyzstan without registration (registration at the place of stay) with the competent authorities is 30 days.
