Confidence Group conducts an urgent survey of employers on the problems of modern labor migration

Confidence Group company is a member of the Commission on Labor Migration of the Council of the Russian Chamber of Commerce and Industry. Therefore, we encourage our colleagues, partners and customers to participate in an urgent information survey.

The Chamber of Commerce and Industry of Russia received an appeal from the Ministry of Economic Development of Russia to provide information in order to develop proposals for the introduction of simplified migration regimes to meet the needs of Russian employers in foreign workers in the context of ongoing mobilization activities in Russia.

If available, please provide the following information:

- about the problems of employers arising in the current conditions in attracting foreign workers, with the provision of specific facts confirming these problems;
- proposals for solving of these problems;
- proposals to simplify the migration regimes of foreign citizens in order to meet the needs of Russian employers in labor migrants, based on an analysis of the identified problems.

Please, if possible, send the information by November 23, 2022 (until 12:00) by e-mail info@confidencegroup.ru

Thanks in advance for feedback!

Sincerely,
Confidence Group team
