

The Main Directorate of the Ministry of Internal Affairs issues only one-time invitations for 90 days

Currently, the Main Directorate of the Ministry of Internal Affairs accepts documents only for single business invitations for a period of 90 days

The staff of the Main Directorate of the Ministry of Internal Affairs at Pokrovka, 42, Moscow, report that the Department now accepts documents only for single business invitations for a period of 90 days. It is currently not possible to issue other types of invitations. This information is reported only orally when submitting documents; there are no written announcements on this topic.

According to the staff of the Main Directorate of the Ministry of Internal Affairs, this is due to the release of an internal order. The reasons and duration of the measures taken are not reported.

We are monitoring the situation closely and will keep you posted on any changes.
The quota reserve for Russia is established by this Order in the amount of 14,124.
