

Confidence Group company – bank accounts in the Republic of Kazakhstan:
new conditions for fast and comfortable financial interaction

Dear friends!

In the circumstances of severe Western sanctions, a stable financial position, as well as reliable operating financial instruments that help make quick payments between counterparties, including foreign ones, are key elements for a successful business.

Confidence Group company, being a professional service provider for hundreds of foreign organizations, having partners in all corners of the globe, has been provided and continues to provide the most comfortable and fast financial relationships between counterparties for successful business.

So, in September 2022, Confidence Group company opened bank accounts in Rubles, Tenge, USD and EURO in the Republic of Kazakhstan. Now we successfully carry out mutual settlements with service customers located either in Russia, or anywhere else in the world. Thus, Western sanctions do not have a significant impact on the financial side of doing business.

We will be glad to share our experience with you, to assist in solving various issues on the territory of the Republic of Kazakhstan.
