

Citizens of the DPR, LPR and Ukraine will also be able to be self-employed in Russia

On June 28, 2022, a law was published extending the self-employed regime to citizens of DPR, LPR and Ukraine

On June 28, 2022, the President of Russia signed the law, allowing citizens of the DPR, LPR and Ukraine to register as self-employed through the public services portal.

As noted in the explanatory note, the implementation of the measures provided for by law will increase the efficiency of filing an application with the tax authority for registration or deregistration as a payer of tax on professional income, increase the number of individuals working legally, and may also lead to increase the receipt of tax revenues in the budgets of the subjects of Russia.

The document enters into force one month after its official publication, but not earlier than the 1st day of the next tax period for professional income tax, that is, August 1, 2022.
